DAILY THOUGHT.

Freedom is not the right to do as you please, but the liberty to do as you ought.—George Elliot.

HOW LONG SHALL I GIVE?

Go break to the needy sweet charity's bread.
"For giving is living," the angel said.
"And I must be giving again and again?"
My peevish answer ran.
"Oh, no," said the angel, piercing me through.
"Just give till the Master stops giving to you."

PRIMARY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION TO APPEAL FOR SCHOOL NURSE.

The regular monthly meeting of the Primary Teachers' Association was held on Friday afternoon at the Eliza Jane Wilson school. The association at that time decided that it would be advisable for the presidents of the parent-teachers' associations of the city to appoint committees from their respective schools for the purpose of attending a meeting of the County Commissioners and asking them to appoint a nurse for the city schools. Up to the present time the welfare work has been very ably conducted by Miss Egnis McKenna, and it is believed that the continuance of the work is necessary to the welfare of the city's children.

It is requested that all those who have automobiles will call at the club sometime during the afternoon and take some of the men for a ride over the city returning in time for the open house. MRS. MITCHELL ENTERTAINS WITH LUNCHEON.

One of the lovely pre-nuptial courtesies given for Miss Eulalie Hutchinson, who becomes a bride on Thursday, was the beautifully appointed luncheon at which Mrs. R. F. Mitchell was hostess yesterday. Pink roses used in profusion with green ferns were effectively used in the rooms and on the table. A mass of roses with ferns placed on a large reflector formed the center piece for the table. Exquisite hand painted cards with the picture of a bride marked each place. Covers were laid for the following guests: The honoree, Miss Eulalie Hutchinson, Miss Marguerite Roberts, Mrs. John Sandusky, Mrs. W. C. Dill-

FEATHERS AND LACE COMBINED FOR EVENING

New York, Nov. 1.—With the pre-Thanksgiving social season in full swing the question of formal evening gowns and dance frocks becomes an important one.

Never have women had a wider choice in style and line than in the instance of this year's "party" dresses. While street and day clothes show much divergence of style the evening gown runs the whole gamut from skirts so tight they must be slit for dancing to hoops and crinolines.

If the number of formal costumes is limited of the "in between" kind is worth thinking about. Such a one I have had sketched for today because of its beauty, economy and usefulness.

While this dress carries out the idea of wide hips it is not bouffant to the extent of being trying even for less slender figures.

Made with a foundation of black satin, the skirt has a plain full overskirt of Chantilly lace accentuated at the hip line by means of cascaded side panels. The bodice is nothing more elaborate than tight-fitting folds of the satin held in place by narrow shoulder straps of the same.

The little touch that makes this dress individual is the bunch of ostrich tips caught at the right side. The original model was trimmed with tips of a brilliant Chinese blue, while a feather fan of the same color was an integral part of the dress.

lard, Mrs. Dan Shepard, Mrs. J. Wallace Lamar, Mrs. A. R. McAllister, and the hostess, Mrs. R. F. Mitchell.

On Monday Miss Hutchinson will be hostess to the members of the bridal party, entertaining at the Country club. Mrs. W. C. Dillard entertains in honor of Miss Hutchinson with a tea on Tuesday afternoon, and that evening Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Quina entertain the party with dinner at the San Carlos. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shepard will entertain with a bay party on Wednesday afternoon.

SHRINERS' BALL AT DOTHAN.

Nobles and their fair lady friends who are planning to attend the ceremonial at Dothan, Tuesday, will be interested in the announcement that capping the day's pleasure will be a big ball.

The beautiful new building of the Dongre Motor Car Company will be handsomely decorated for the occasion and music will be furnished by a band noted for its splendid music.

After the ceremonial session at the city auditorium has been held and starting at 10:30 in the evening, the dance will continue until the wee small hours.

In charge of the affair are Nobles Moss Byrd Farmer and Myer Blumberg, assisted by Mrs. Eric Gellerstedt and a committee of ladies.

Most assuredly and in usual Shrine style, the affair will be one of the most brilliant of the season.

CAPTAIN NELSON HOST AT LUNCHEON.

Captain C. P. Nelson, U. S. N. of the "Leonidas" of the Destroyer Force was host last Sunday, entertaining at luncheon on board the "Leonidas" as his guests, Miss Mollie Brent, Mrs. Alba H. Warren, of El Paso, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Hayward, Dr. Tucker Smith, Captain M. C. U. S. N.

On Friday night Captain Nelson entertained on board as his dinner guests, Mrs. Alba H. Warren, Mrs. P. S. Golderman, Miss Mollie Brent, Miss Daisey Hyer, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Hayward Mr. J. B. Mare, Commander Van Orden, U. S. N. of the Destroyer Force, and Mr. F. C. Brent. The guests afterwards went to Fort Barrancas to attend the dance given in welcome to Colonel Mauldin, commander of the post.

Captain Nelson during his stay in the city with the Destroyer Force is enjoying renewing many old friendships. He was at one time Senior Aide at the local Naval Air Station before going overseas. During the war he made a splendid record and wears some of the highest decorations given by the British, Italian and American governments. He is credited with sinking three enemy submarines.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF A SON.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Johnson are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, October 31, who will bear the name of Francis Bernard.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

A Halloween party unique in that it was entirely planned and arranged by the young men themselves, was that given by Messrs. Peter Greenblatt, William Marshall, and Harold Karr at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Greenblatt. The decorations of orange and black, dimmed lights and ghostly attire of the dozen or more guests assembled made the evening a fascinating ingly "spooky" one. After fortune-telling and games, salad and apple cider were served. Mrs. C. R. Johnson and Mrs. Nell Clark chaperoned.

The new fall hats at Miss Herriman's are very attractive as to style and delightfully pleasing as to price. Many of them are only $10.00, 7 South Palafox.—Adv.

What would you do with an extra hour and a half each day?

Would you spend it in reading? In sewing? Certainly you could find plenty of constructive things to do.

If you are dealing with a Cash-and-Carry store, you are losing at least an hour and a half a day which might be given to some of those other things you would so like to do.

Think of the time you consume dressing to go marketing. Consider the time wasted in waiting your turn; the time lost while you are having those packages wrapped. And then the time required to go to and from the store!

Yes, you would easily save at least an hour and a half a day by dealing with a grocer who makes a specialty of SERVICE.

We are well equipped to fill your orders promptly and deliver them to you in double-quick time. All you need to do is to pick up the phone, and give us a list of the things you need. Think of the time and trouble saved.

Then you have our expert knowledge of what "good" groceries are. Our reputation is built upon this knowledge, so we MUST know the quality of the products we recommend.

One of our customers said to us: "Why do you always send me RYZON when I ask for baking powder? How do you know I'll like it?"

This is how we know. We test everything we recommend. In addition to our own success with RYZON we know that the leading hotels, the best clubs, the highest paid chefs and food experts use RYZON. It is well named "The Perfect Baking Powder" and economical at 40c per pound.
